THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR NO. 41.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1915

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

Death Of L. A. Teas.

Leander A. Teas, a lifelong resident of this place, died Sabbath at the McCallan hospital in Xenia where he had been taken two weeks ago to be treated for pneumonia.

For more than two years Mr. Teas had not been in good health and he was particularly feeble since the death of his wife about a year ago. He had within the past few years suffered from cancer of the eye and one member had been removed.

The deceased was a son of Samuel Teas and was 76 years of age. He was married to Elizabeth Jane Ellis who preceded him in death last year. For thirteen years Mr. Teas had charge of the Whitelaw hotel farm, preceding Mr. Wm. Conley's management.

Mr. Teas was a member of the M. E. church and a man of good Christian habits being a faithful worshiper in that congregation as long as his health permitted. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. David Baker, of Fairfield and Mrs. of Dayton.

The funeral was held from the M. E. church Tuesday afternoon, the services being in charge of his pastor, Rev. J. W. Patton. Burial north of town.

County Board Brings Suit.

The county board of education has brought suit against the county commissioners to compel them to transfer an excess of $1,938.35 in the sheep fund, an excess over all claims paid, to the board of education. This sum has been loaned to the blind pension fund in which there was a deficit. They say it will be repaid to the sheep fund but not at this time.

Big Circus

The Baran and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth comes to Xenia on Thursday, Sept. 30. The oldest inhabitant can hardly recall the time when the largest circus in the world ever visited the country.

It will be a great treat and those who cannot find an excuse to go by taking the youngsters can excuse themselves by wanting to see it. It is the same show that visits the cities. There will be a crowd there but the "big top" accommodates 10,000 persons.

Former Citizens Visit Here.

Mr. Wm. Galloway, of Kansas City, has been visiting relatives here this week. Mr. Galloway does not find much here today that was in evidence then. So far as he knows Mrs. Julia Galloway Taylor is the only person residing here that he knew. He is the son of Anthony Galloway and was 14 years old when he went west.

Mr. Wm. Huffman, known to many older citizens made a short visit here Monday, his first trip back in 30 years. Mr. Huffman is located in Paris, Ky., and is connected with a gas company. What was once a large family of Huffman's has gradually been reduced by time until there is no one by that name in this vicinity now. Mr. William Huffman was a brother of Lee, Hiram and Jack Huffman.

Village Officials Inspect Lights.

The village officials composed two auto loads that went on a tour of inspection to Yellow Springs, Osborn and New Carlisle last Friday night.

The Dayton Power & Light Co. has been asking for a new franchise here and a change in the light system to one similar what is used in Osborn and New Carlisle. These towns have the incandescent system and although citizens seem to be satisfied our officials were not in that our present gas gives much more light than do the incandescent. The officials were much disappointed and unless the company offers a better inducement there is not much chance for a change.

Between the two systems there would be a saving to the village of about $80 a year in favor of the incandescent system. The officials say that the present light contract would have to be cut in half before it would be a fair price for the incandescent system and then the people would not be satisfied with the change.

We Escaped Gas Famine.

Cedarville had a very narrow escape last Thursday evening from a gas famine, such as was experienced by Xenia people which caused them to do without a warm breakfast.

An accident had happened to the line near Columbus and the pressure began dropping until by night it was dangerous to try to use lights or fires without being on the watch.

Cedarville and the towns east had more pressure of course than did the towns west of us. As it was the lights went down very low and began to flicker until there was some apprehension among the consumers.

R. W. Irwin, manager of this district, who is a strong supporter of the "Safety First" movement ordered the gas shut off in Xenia, thus preventing any chance of accidents. When it comes to service the O. P. & S. Co. can be counted on for reliability but accidents will happen and are beyond the control of the company.

Dry Forces Hear Metzger.

The dry workers in the county numbering about 200 gathered in the First M. E. church last Thursday evening to enjoy a chicken dinner and hear a lecture by Hon. Clark W. Metzger of Canton, who had the credit of carrying Stark county last year by 8000 for prohibition against a wet majority of 4000 at a previous election. A number of short speeches were made by guests present. About a dozen citizens from here attended.

Where Rural Schools Attract.

It is as true as it is strange that in Iowa many rural schools are so attractive that city boys are sent out of the city to attend the rural school. I know one country school in which there are six children from city schools. A "chicken roast" is the latest school attraction that I have known. A teacher is making the schoolhouse the center of social life for the district. She does not like the idea of having a dance in the school, and she will not have kissing frascos, so she plans various social functions with stunts and games that have abundance of life, that are new, that are harmless, she does quite a little along the line of refreshments, and everyone takes a part in the preparation as well as in disposing of the feast. The greatest success she has ever had was a chicken roast. It was in the autumn, and was in the school yard. It was a close approach to a barbecue. Every man, woman and child in the district was there. Journal of Education.

OUR LIFE.

When twilight glides the summer's eve
And breezes calm the blow;
When birds are singing vesper songs,
In tones both sweet and low,
O! then what joy the music,
O'er days of childhood's jubilee!

What pleasure then it is to life
In shadows by the rock,
And watch the sportive happy tribe
In every dancing spot,
And then recall delightful plays
Way back in boyhood's happy days!

Like as the sun with light and light
Ascends the noonday sky,
And sheds his rays of brilliant power
All things to boisterous play,
So grows the youth in vigor and strength
Till manhood years arrive at length.

I scarcely know how time has flown,
That years now pass so swift to play,
With brotherhood and me,
While we and all those youths since then
Grew rapidly to young men.

Then as the velvet moon
Floats swiftly far and near,
And scatters from the silent stock
Without regret or fear,
So far away from home
To other scenes and climes we roam.

Where are they now, the clever boys,
Whose eyes were bright and clear
Ah! here I seem to see them
They're scattered far and near,
Grim death has claimed most for his own
That have with us from childhood grown.

The bright autumnal glances
Through glimmers of fall of cloud,
And darkened shadows
All nature to enshroud,
An emblem this, death's power,
The near approach of the last sad hour.

How fleet the time of boyhood
To manhood's dawn of life,
And down the evening of life,
With loss of strength and power,
We reach the limit of days,
In all the things of years and ten.

For as the sun on clouds
Then sinks in the sky,
And twilight tinge the day,
Her beauty to the evening time,
Our rising lives the same sublime
Sink down to the evening time.

But oh! This life is so
We are in the end
We are in the end
We are in the end

Through the night of life

Found Dead In His Bed.

Martin V. Denney, aged 74, for many years a resident of this place was found dead in bed Wednesday morning about five o'clock, the discovery being made by his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Beacham.

Dr. M. L. Marsh was called and after examination pronounced death due to heart trouble. He had been dead about an hour. The deceased suffered an attack of pneumonia last winter and never regained his usual strength and has suffered heart attacks all summer.

Mr. Denney was born in Gallipolis and lived in Wilmington before moving to this place 24 years ago. His wife died six years ago and three children mourn the loss of a parent, Henry of Alpha; John of Enon and Mrs. Beacham who lived with her father.

The deceased was a member of Co. B, 96 regiment of the U. S. Army. The funeral services will be held from the home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

New Store Is Opened.

The oldest firm in the county opened its doors Thursday in a magnificent new building on the site of the old store on Detroit street, Xenia, which was destroyed by fire last December. For more than fifty years Hutchison & Glibney have been in the dry goods business serving the public in a manner that has made them the leading firm in the county.

Although Mr. Hutchison has reached an advanced age he was fortunate in having associated with him, Walker Glibney, son of the late John W. Glibney, and Harry Sparks, who had been reared and educated from the Hutchison home. The work of rebuilding was left in the hands of these young men. The former knowing the business requirements worked in connection with the latter, who handled the architectural end. As a result one of the most modern department stores in this section of the state was opened to the public on Thursday. For convenience and beauty two of the stores in the neighboring cities can equal it. The firm has received many congratulations and best wishes for success from hundreds of friends that attended the opening.

THEATRE NOTES

"Daddy Long-Legs" to be the Attraction at Fairbanks Theatre Springfield, September 27th.

On Monday evening, September 27th, the Fairbanks Theatre, Springfield, will offer "DADDY LONG-LEGS," the famous comedy success which Henry Miller is sending on tour this season. This is a dramatic visualization of the popular romance set forth in the famous "DADDY LONG-LEGS" letters which were published in the Ladies Home Journal three years ago and which have since, in book form, proved one of the most famous best-sellers in the literary world.

The theme of the play is the romance of a very quaint little Underella and a modern Prince Charming. The play has been described by the dramatic reviewers of the country as the daintiest love story told on the stage in recent years. It is at the same time a comedy that bubbles over with whimsical humor and is radiant with the joyousness of youth.

Fall Festival In Xenia.

Xenia's second annual Farmer's Fall Festival promises to eclipse anything that has ever been held in Xenia and to establish a mark of perfection that other cities in Southern Ohio will find hard to equal. The festival is scheduled for October 7, 8 and 9, and all arrangements have been made to make the closing days of this first "Indian Summer" week a banner event for this district.

"Some attraction for every minute" has been the motto of the committee in charge and from a glance at the program it will be seen that the plan has met with admirable success. From baby shows to daily airplane flights nothing has been overlooked that would bring pleasure to the people all over this section of the state. There are all kinds of parades, day and night attractions, and everything that goes with a real festival.

The affair is being staged under the auspices of the Xenia Business Men's Association. Last year, on its first venture, the festival set a record for attendance. This year they assume the limit for conquest and people of this vicinity are looking forward to the Fall Festival as the banner event of southern Ohio.

AUTOMOBILE RACES

The Automobile races which are scheduled for the Clark County Fair Grounds on Saturday, Sept. 25, are causing much enthusiasm among the local and outside Race Bugs. There six Big Races Scheduled besides a race for the amateurs who are permitted to enter any other event. The race for the Amateurs is for 5 miles and for a prize of $50.00. Besides this prize there $1000.00 offered by the management to the winners in the other events. The $1000.00 is causing some of the best racers on half mile tracks to sit up and take notice and they are entering their cars on the local track for all of the events.

Some of the entries received include Herbert Rudy from Indianapolis, driving a Gray the car that won the 500 mile race in Columbus last year. The Big 50 H. P. Stutz driven by Douglas Gray of Chicago. The Stutz is America's fastest car and Gray is a registered A. A. A. driver with considerable experience. The Cole 6 Bullet, which was built by the Cole Racing Team, has been secured by the local Cole Agents. This car will be piloted by Bill Slicer.

The Lima Sunbeam is another car that is worth coming miles to see. It is driven by Dale N. Armentrout of Lima, Ohio, and has the record of 10 miles in 11 minutes 30 1/2 sec. Armentrout just recently gained the title of Champion Dirt Track Driver of Ohio. Sid Martin of Cleveland, is another driver of no little reputation, having driven the half mile oval for years.

The management has secured the Hawkens Cadet Band to furnish music during the afternoon entertainment and all in all, the meet for Saturday will prove to be the best race that has ever been seen on any half mile track. The admission is only 50c which is unusual for this class of entertainment.
